Sure Fire Picks
 Sharon Jones & The Dap-Kings - 100 Days and 100 Nights
 Classic, fiery soul from an amazing singer and a crack backing band that sound like they stepped out of a time machine. Ms. Jones IS the Queen of Funk!

V/A - Colombia! - Discos Fuentes from the Golden Era
 Irresistible compilation of vintage Colombian salsa - wailing horns, wild percussion and ebullient melodies that will make a dancer out of anyone!

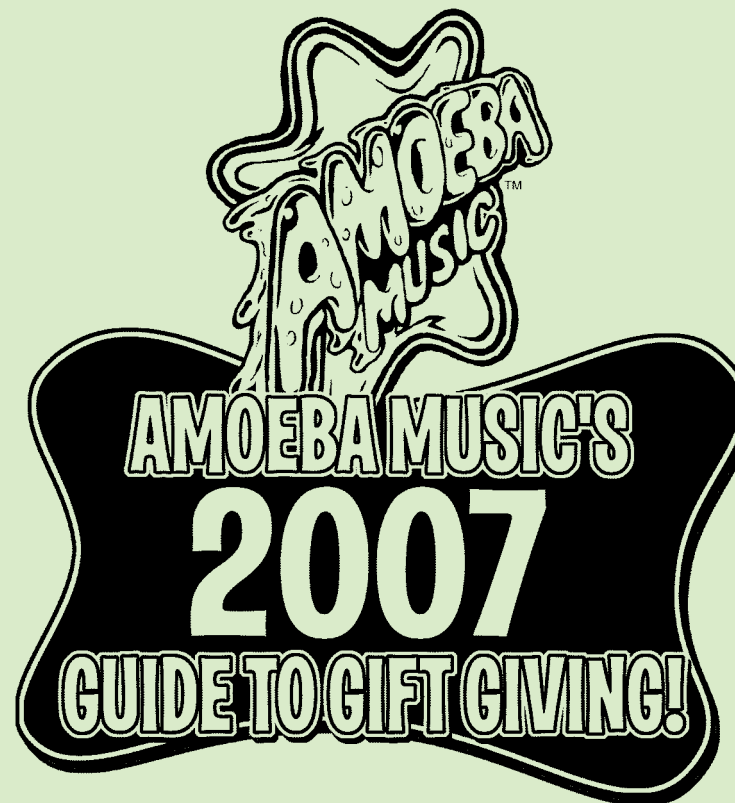

Feist - The Reminder
 The follow-up to her underground smash "Let It Die" is a showcase for this Canadian singer-songwriter with the heartbreak voice - breathy, wistful electro-folk gems, searching for something to hold onto.

Charles Mingus Sextet and Eric Dolphy - Cornell 1964
 This recently unearthed tape finds Mingus leading his classic sextet with Eric Dolphy on a dazzling one-off set at Cornell University - 2 discs of glorious, freewheeling performances that merge the past and future of jazz.

Band of Horses - Cease to Begin
 Ghosts and southern rock spirits float through the new album from these indie rock heroes. Epic, guitar-heavy ballads and high, lonesome vocals.

V/A - Worried Noodles
 This delightful 2-disc set features an all-star lineup of indie rockers making songs from the wry, enigmatic poetry of Scottish cartoonist David Shrigley, with accompanying book. Franz Ferdinand, David Byrne, TV on the Radio and more!
