THE COMET IS COMING
Hyper-Dimensional Expansion

DOMI & JD BECK
Not Tight

Highly anticipated debut exemplifies their trailblazing take on jazz. The New York Times hailed them as simultaneously "freakishly complex and virtuosic" and "relentlessly melodic."

MILES DAVIS
The Bootleg Series, Vol. 7: That's What Happened 1982-1985

POP

LOUIS TOMLINSON Faith in the Future

One Direction's Louis Tomlinson's throwback early 2000s style emo just may be some of the most infectious, addictive, guitar-driven tracks out there.

BETTY WHO Big

TAYLOR SWIFT Midnights

BARBARA STREISAND Live at the Bon Soir

LYKKE LI Eyeye

A story about the landscape of love, songs are inhabited by moving images that neither start nor end. A somatic, repetitious experience, compounding chapters between a dream and reality.

GIRLPUPPY When I'm Alone

Singer-songwriter Becca Harvey grew up wanting to be Hannah Montana or Taylor Swift but, now music that sounds like neither. A fine debut; quickly paced and subtly quirky. Out 12/2

CHRISTINE & THE QUEENS Red

Evokes both the louche, melancholic, soulful pre-war Parisian cabaret and the glistening, darkly romantic synth-pop of the early 1980s. Love, passion, obsession, possession, surrender: these are its themes.

PUNK/SKA

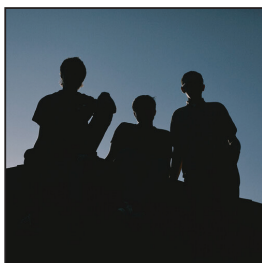

DROPKICK MURPHYS
This Machine Still Kills Fascists

One of The Dropkick Murphys most unique releases. Crafted around American folk icon, Woody Guthrie's perennial jabs at life that are eerily relevant today.

THE INTERRUPTERS
In The Wild
[Opaque Blue]

The ruling torch-bearers of old school ska-punk.. Spirited, upbeat, album that is rich in the original socially-conscious spirit of the genre.

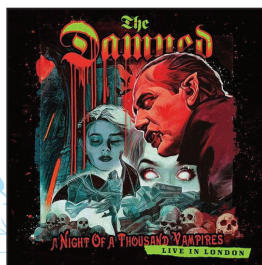

JOYCE MANOR
40oz. To Fresno
[Opaque]

Rife with boundless energy. Tightly-constructed, short-but-sweet punk tracks. This is the good stuff; pure punk rock with roots in power pop, college rock, and real deal DIY ethos.

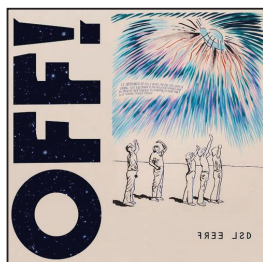

SOUL GLO
Diaspora Problems

An album so boundless in its creativity that it cannot be ignored from one of the most exciting, vicious and vital hardcore bands currently navigating the underground.

ROCK

ALEX G
God Save The Animals

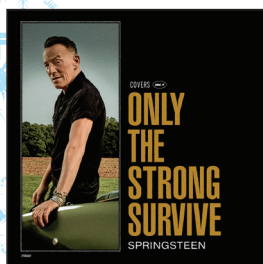

FIRST AID KIT
Palomino

Combines their usual Americana/folk sound with impressive pop songwriting. Utterly bewitching, with sublime harmonies and melodies that weave a detailed emotional tapestry.

THE BETHS
Expert in a Dying Field

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN
Only The Strong Survive

On his second album of covers, Springsteen puts his own distinctive spin on soul classics. A spirited celebration of some of America's finest artists, performed by a living legend.

ARCTIC MONKEYS
The Car

BEACH HOUSE
Once Twice Melody

Beautiful, brilliant, and compelling! Beach House at their best as the band showcases their impressive songwriting skills ranging from the ethereal and otherworldly to the moody, slightly funereal.

TIM BERNARDES
Mil Coisas Invisíveis

ROCK

BEN HARPER Bloodline Maintenance

Fearless and immensely soulful. Soul music, but never a stylistic tribute to some bygone era. The sound and words are essential and undeniably timely.

BAD SUNS Apocalypse Whenever

Delivering plenty of hooks and sunny melodies, these are well-produced pop songs designed to create good times all around.

EZRA FURMAN All Of Us Flames

Punk in sentiment, but pop in sound. Weaving justified fury into a testament to community while borrowing from sounds of the past to envision a less destructive future.

EDITORS EBM

A perturbed and maximalist affair that's thundering algorithms target the darkest, least inhibited corners of the dancefloor.

CASS MCCOMBS Heartmind

A warm, intimate album that displays some of his best lyrical storytelling yet. Songs that sneak up on you and haunt the mind.

ARCHITECTS The Classic Symptoms Of A Broken Spirit

UK metalcore titans monstrous new album mixes in industrial, electronic and post-rock elements with insanely catchy Rammstein-like machine gun riffs.

CHRISTIAN LEE HUTSON Quitters

Blends folk, country, and indie in ways that feel surprising and fresh. The lyrics paint realistic, relatable worlds filled with heartbreak and connection.

ROCK

PLAINS I Walked With You A Ways* [Clear Pink]

Duo of Waxahatchee's Katie Crutchfield and Jess Williamson immediately teleports listener into a world of Southern sunsets, wide open spaces, and the unapologetic nature of Country music.

BEATLES Revolver* [Deluxe Edition]

TOM PETTY & THE HEARTBREAKERS Live at the Fillmore

THE LINDA LINDAS Growing Up

Filled with gleeful intensity whether the band is flexing its pop muscles or creating riotous, no-holds-barred classic punk. This is the future of punk!

OLIVER SIM Hideous Bastard

Debut album from songwriter, bassist, and vocalist of The xx. Inspired by Sim's love of horror movies and his own life experience; unpacking themes of shame, fear and masculinity.

NEIL YOUNG- Harvest [50th Anniversary]

BIG THIEF Dragon New Warm Mountain

Throughout this adventurous double-album, Big Thief dives into both the natural and otherworldly, paving new sounds and textures while uncovering new mysteries; an album of admirable ambition.

THE CURE WISH [30TH ANNIVERSARY] 3-CD

FLEET FOXES A Very Lonely Solstice [Indie Clear]

BONNIE RAITT
Just Like That

A spirited, easy-to-love blues rocker with enough earworms to keep it in your regular rotation. Another excellent addition to the artist's catalog of modern classics.

BUILT TO SPILL
When the Wind Forgets Your Name

Infused with elements of psych, punk, metal and dub; all the familiar magic fans dig and adds some surprising, exciting musical twists.

COUNTERPARTS
A Eulogy For Those Still Here

BRET MCKENZIE
Songs Without Jokes

Non-comedic album from actor Bret McKenzie (Flight of the Conchords, The Simpsons) skews towards indie. Earnest and wry, playful and serious — always intelligent, and always enjoyable.

THE DEAD TONGUES
Dust

MITSKI
Laurel Hell

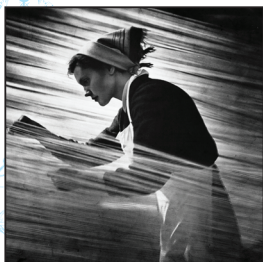

Filled with yearning, beauty, and additively catchy melodies, the tracks are richly infused with emotion, and seamlessly move from one genre to the next, creating a cohesive album listening experience.

ROCK

JACK WHITE Entering Heaven Alive

The softer side of Jack White - these stripped down and beautifully-constructed songs are an intimate listening experience. A rootsy, imaginative collection.

BRIGHT EYES I'm Wide Awake It's Morning

2022 reissue of critically the acclaimed 2005 release. With consummate tunefulness, weaves the personal and the political more fluidly than most singers even care to try.

THE PARANOYS Talk Talk Talk

An entertaining spaceship ride set to driving rhythms, scuzzy garage rock riffs, and a decidedly punk sound. The group concentrates on Sci-fi and anxiety themes with impressive results.

BRIGHT EYES I'm Wide Awake Companion [Gold]

ANGEL OLSEN Big Time

Seemingly channeling that late night AM radio, all alone in the world weariness of classic country stars like Patsy Cline. Balances grief with a belief in the beauty of life and love.

SHARON VAN ETTEN We've Been Going About This All Wrong

Intimate and introspective, this hazy, dreamy, wistful album can at times feel dark but it's always buoyed by a very smart, human sense of hope.

ROCK

FATHER JOHN MISTY Chloë and the Next 20th Century

Truly special; cinematic in scope and earnest in emotion, the album feels like it should be the soundtrack to a sweeping golden age of Hollywood epic.

CIRCA SURVIVE Two Dreams OUT 12/16

THE ANIMALS Retrospective

Gathers all fourteen U.S. Top 40 hits by The Animals (and Eric Burdon & The Animals), including "See See Rider and the #1 classic, "House of the Rising Sun."

SUKI WATERHOUSE Milk Teeth

Enchanting, ethereal and dazzling as ever. A thoughtful and eclectic collection of her early work. Features the new track, "Neon Signs".

SPECIAL INTEREST Endure

An album mostly comprised of ground-quaking punk-dance anthems. Politically charged, shot through with ribald wit, simmering anger and references to philosopher Frantz Fanon.

THE ANIMALS The Animals

2022 reissue of their self-titled debut album features a mixture of blues, R&B, traditional folk covers. The #1 US and UK charting "House of the Rising Sun" is included.

WEYES BLOOD And in the Darkness, Hearts Aglow

Follow-up to the acclaimed Titanic Rising, a celestial-influenced folk album about being in the thick of it. A search for an escape hatch to liberate us from algorithms and ideological chaos.

MOOR MOTHER Jazz Codes (LP)

Heralded as of the greatest concert films of all time. Shot in 16mm color film, the original concert has now been meticulously re-mixed and re-edited.

THE ROLLING STONES The Singles 63-66 [7" Singles Box Set]

A comprehensive overview of The Rolling Stones' early career as pop chart hitmakers: 18 vinyl 7" 45 RPM singles and E.P.s in original picture sleeves, a 32-page book and more.

THE A'S Fruit

YEAH YEAH YEAHS Cool It Down

This thunderstorm of a return from the legendary trio is an expert distillation of all their best gifts that impels you to move, cry and listen closely.

ELECTRONICA

BLACK MIDI hellfire

A caustic, exhilarating masterpiece! A whirlwind of virtuosity and structure and an idiom-hopping decathlon of meter shifts with barbed harmonies and arrangements that can veer anywhere.

SOHN Trust

Further exploration of a sound that first found success in the electronic and noir-pop spaces that also explores deeper roots in folk structures and an aching, emotive balladry.
